STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

The Maryland Public Ethics Law includes standards of conduct applicable to financial disclosure filers and other State employees. The standards address disqualification from participation, prohibited secondary employment, prohibited ownership interests, misuse of position, prohibited solicitation and acceptance of gifts, misuse of confidential information, post-employment limitations, prohibited dealings with the State, and procurement specifications assistance restrictions. The Law provides for exceptions and exemptions under certain circumstances.

Filers wanting more detailed information about these requirements should contact the M-NCPPC Office of the Executive Director by calling 301-454-1740.

PRIVACY NOTICE

The Public Ethics Law (General Provisions Article, Title 5), Annotated Code of Maryland) requires the collection of this information, which will be used primarily for public disclosure and to determine compliance with the Law. The information may be disclosed to any requesting person, including officials of State, local or federal government, who records their name and address, and this record will be provided to the filer upon request. The subject has the right to review, correct and amend the record as set forth in the General Provisions § 4-502. Failure to file or to report information required by Public Ethics Law §5-607 can subject you to civil and administrative penalties including termination or other disciplinary action, suspension of pay, late filing fees, and/or civil fines. Willful and false filing is subject to criminal penalty for perjury pursuant to Criminal Law Article §9-101, Annotated Code of Maryland.
