The Planning Board Draft of the Germantown Plan for the Town Sector Zone, dated November 2019, is approved with revisions. County Council revisions to the Planning Board Draft of the Germantown Plan for the Town Sector Zone are identified below. Deletions to the text of the Plan are indicated by [brackets], additions by underscoring. Page 13: Revise the first sentence of the second paragraph under “F. Planning Framework Context” as follows:

The intent of the 1974 [Master Plan for] Germantown Master Plan was to fulfill the objectives of the General Plan.

Page 13: Revise the third paragraph under “F. Planning Framework Context” as follows:

The 1989 Germantown Master plan built upon the recommendations of the 1974 [Master Plan for] Germantown Master Plan. It modified four elements of the earlier plan: housing, community identity, community facilities and live/work balance. The 1989 Germantown Master Plan noted that Churchill Village was nearly built-out with only 132 acres of developable land remaining. Furthermore, the 1989 plan concluded that Churchill Village would not be served by a “village center” at Waters Landing Drive and Father Hurley Boulevard because two major shopping areas (Sugarloaf Centre and Germantown Commons) are in close proximity [the Germantown area] and effectively serve the community. As a result, the recommended land use was revised from a village center to a religious facility and senior housing.

This master plan recommends the Commercial [/] Residential Neighborhood (CRN) zone (CRN-1.25 C-0.25 R-1.25 H-45) for [these two sites] the vacant parcel and the Commercial Residential Town (CRT) zone (CRT-2.5 C-0.25 R-2.5 H-90) for the Churchill Senior Living property. The CRN zone is intended for pedestrian-scale, neighborhood-serving mixed-use centers and transitional edges in which retail tenant ground floor footprints are limited to preserve the community scale. The CRT zone also allows for mixed-use development, but at a higher density than the CRN zone. In this case, the CRT zone may permit a reasonable expansion of the Churchill Senior Living property.
